ROUTE: Ubud – Kintamani – Jimbaran – Uluwatu – Seminyak– Departure

Day 01: Arrive Ubud

On arrival, collect and transfer to hotel for night stay. Upon arrival at your hotel, head out on the Ayung River and laze the afternoon away with a foot bath and massage. As you float down the river, you will be serenaded with the sounds of exotic birds and the breeze rustling through the trees. When you reach the shore, enjoy high tea in the jungle and make your way down a path to a village temple for a blessing ceremony. Once you are done, walk back to your hotel to unwind before dinner.

Day 02: Ubud | A Massage and High Tea

Ubud is one of the most recognizable locations in Bali and the beating cultural heart of the island. This ancient royal town is scattered with art studios and shops that specialize in niche craft. Enjoy your day in Ubud. Night stay

Day 03: Ubud | A Culinary Adventure at Bali Asli

Bali Asli is an off the beaten path restaurant and cooking school in East Bali known for its traditional Balinese cuisine. The cooking classes, hosted by Executive Chef and Director, Penelope Williams, are based on "a day in the life of...". Every class focuses on the cuisine from the different regions of Bali with a varying theme. This secluded restaurant is peacefully situated at the foothills of Mount Agung and surrounded by rice fields.

Day 04: Ubud | The Royal Pinta Maha

Bali is synonymous with spiritual and physical wellness, and in turn, has become a prime destination for those seeking restorative experiences. Upon arrival at The Royal Pita Maha, you will trade your clothes for a sarong and sash. Then, walk to the hotels main temple to pray and experience a purification ceremony at the Holy Spring Pool. Enjoy an organic lunch made with locally sourced produce and later, proceed to the Royal Kirana Spa & Wellness centre. There, you can choose from a myriad of rejuvenating spa treatments and massages. The centre also includes an herbal steam sauna as well as a swimming pool.

Day 05: Ubud | Wonderous Temples and Enlightenment

Balinese people have enormous reverence for their Hindu religion, as well as their surroundings, and the creatures they share the earth with. This is reflected in the temples, pagodas and animist statues that are omnipresent on the island. Today's tour begins with a stirring lecture at the private home of Bapak Anong Ishmail, the curator of the Sukarno Museum, we will then travel out into the hills to visit and learn about the Buddhist and Hindu temples that were erected in the 8th and 10th century. On the way, stop for lunch amongst the lush paddy fields and meet a local priest who will conduct a blessing ceremony. This ceremony is performed to wish you luck and health in your future endeavors.

Day 06: Ubud - Jimbaran | Visiting Lake Bratan

Beyond the electric green paddy fields and rugged jungles, Bali is a kaleidoscope of colours. This is especially true at the flower and fruit market. On your way from Ubud to Jimbaran, make a pit stop and admire the incredible bouquets, wreathes and necklaces constructed from flowers and leaves. Afterwards, stop at Ulun Danu Temple located on the banks of serene Lake Bratan – one of the most photographed spots on the island. Near the lake, is a small restaurant serving delectable Balinese cuisine and is a perfect place to relax with a beer and absorb the enchanting surroundings.

Day 07: Jimbaran | Spiritual Healing and Sunset over the Indian Ocean

Mangku (priests) practice an ancient art of spiritual healing and guided meditation. While the priests are traditionally men, today you will have a rare opportunity to have a private ceremony with a female Mangku. This ceremony can be quite emotional for some, as many deep thoughts and past experiences are unlocked from the subconscious. Mangku's are caring individuals and will explain in detail how you can continue your healing long after the ceremony has ended. Afterwards, depart to La Laguna Beach Club and enjoy a stunning sunset.

Day 08: Jimbaran – Lembongan Island | A Trip to Lembongan Island

The water surrounding Lembongan Island is a striking shade of blue. Situated off the southeast coast of Bali, the island is free of motor congestion and hawkers. The quiet atmosphere has made the island a desirable destination for tourists seeking halcyon beach vibes. Vibrantly colorful coral reefs have also made the island a noted spot for scuba-diving and snorkeling. After enjoying a swim in the sea, head back to the shore for a delicious barbecue of steaks and freshly caught seafood. By late afternoon, it will time to sail back and enjoy the sunset on board your luxurious catamaran.

Days 9-10: Jimbaran | Enjoy Blissful Days in Paradise

This paradise island offers countless places and activities to share, enjoy and create happy memories. Explore far-flung regions, indulge in a spa treatment or a romance-fueled al fresco dinner. You could also simply enjoy your resort base, Jimbaran Village, on Bali's south-west coastline. A traditional fishing community, Jimbaran rests in a 5km (3mi)-long crescent-shaped, golden sand bay, one of Bali's finest stretches of beach. Although Jimbaran has increasingly become a popular resort destination, it still maintains its distinctly Balinese village ambiance. During your 'alone time', enjoy a day of sun worshipping, paddle out in the bay on a kayak, or dine again at Jimbaran's celebrated beachfront seafood restaurants.
